

```
<!DOCTYPE html>

<html>

<body>

<h2>DISPLAY JSON data</h2>

<script>

// JSON data (embedded directly in the script)
var data = '[{"name": "Shreyanshu", "age": "20", "Place": "Norway"}, {"name": "Siri", "age": "19", "Place": "Bengaluru"}]';

// Parsing the JSON data
var mydata = JSON.parse(data);

// Building the HTML table to display the data
let txt = "<table border='1'>"; // Ensure to use single quotes inside the double quotes

txt += "<tr><th>Name</th><th>Age</th><th>Place</th></tr>"; // Table header

// Looping through each object in the JSON array to add rows to the table for (let x in mydata) {
    txt += "<tr><td>" + mydata[x].name + "</td><td>" + mydata[x].age + "</td><td>" + mydata[x].Place + "</td></tr>";
}

txt += "</table>";

// Display the table in the  tag with id="demo"
document.getElementById("demo").innerHTML = txt;

</script>

</body>

</html>
```